

Temperance Column.

By the Ocala Temperance Reform Club.

Edited by J. A. Munden.

The Club meets every Sunday afternoon at four o'clock in Temperance Hall. The Public are invited.

THE LIQUOR LAW.

The following is that portion of the liquor law, as taken from the Revised Statutes of Florida, which treats on the question now at issue:

SEC. 336 (IN PART).

No license shall be issued for more than one year, and all licenses shall expire on the 1st day of October of each year. Dealers in spirituous, vinous or malt liquors shall pay a license tax of four hundred dollars in each county for each place of business.

SEC. 865. APPLICATION FOR PERMIT—TO WHOM MADE.

Any person, firm or corporation wishing to sell liquors, wines or beer, in any election district, shall make application to the board of county commissioners of the county, at a regular meeting, asking the board to grant to the applicant the right to sell such liquors, wines and beer in such election district, and praying for a permit to make such sales.

SEC. 866. REQUISITES OF APPLICATION.

The application shall be signed by a majority of the registered voters of the election district, as shown by the registration list at the date of application, each signature to be made in the presence of at least two credible witnesses, and shall be accompanied by the applicant's affidavit that each and every name or mark affixed to such application was the act and deed of the person purporting to sign the same, and that there was no fraud, bribery or deception in procuring such signatures or marks.

SEC. 867. PUBLICATION.

Said application, with the signatures or marks thereto attached, shall be published in full at the applicant's expense, in a newspaper published in the county, for the space of two weeks before the board meets to hear the application; but if there be no newspaper published in the county, then a copy of the application with the signatures or marks shall be posted at the court house and in the election district for a like period.

The saloon keepers of Atlanta petitioned the city council for permission to run their saloons until midnight during the exposition, but the council refused to allow them open after 10 o'clock.

Violators of the Sunday law in New York city are fined $100 and given 30 days in jail.
